PERSONAL.

—Uncle John Edwards was water bound in the city this week.

—A. G. Peck and family have moved to Fairland for a while.

—Judge Ginn, of Chicago, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

—George Tamplin, the well known commission man, of Kansas City, was down this week.

—Senator Key and Solicitor E. C. Alberty were in the city Tuesday on their way home from Delaware court.

—The mother of Mrs. Essex and Mr. Essex's sister, Mrs. Allen, arrived at last evening's train, too late to attend the funeral.

—Jim Tamm was seen at Sulphur Springs, Ark., last Saturday, enquiring for the use of land in the county east of Fairland.

—H. G. Chandler was in the city Saturday from his duck creek farm and reports that his wheat prospect is very fine this season.

—E. T. Bell, of Roseville, Ind., who had been in the city for some days visiting the family of Mrs. C. B. Essex, left for home Monday.

—Dr. Mason, of Evansville, Ind., has been visiting his nephew, Judge Mason, for some days. Tuesday night for the south. Judge Mason accompanied the gentleman as far as Muskogee.

—Miss Minnie Chouteau, of Coffeyville, Kansas, spent several days in this city during the week past. Miss Minnie is an estimable young lady having a large circle of acquaintances in this city and her visits are always a source of pleasure.

The Fowler residence east of the track is nearing completion.

"Little Bob" Irons's pony was killed in the stable last Monday night by lightning.

Emmett Skinner has been staying at W. C. Patton & Co.'s during the absence of Jim McCrary.

A. N. Green expects to move his furniture into his new hotel the first of next week and will open for business a few days later.

Rev. D. N. Allen has failed to meet his appointments at Pleasant Hill because of inflammation of the eyes, but hopes to be able from this time to be punctual.

Cowwecowee circuit court meets at Claremore next Monday, with a long docket. Judge Shackelford also opens his May term at Muskogee on the day following.

The bank added upwards of $10,000 to the circulating medium last week in bright new bills, having the name of S. C. Cobb in one corner and that of H. C. Cook in the other.

Louis Ralston has moved his family to Neosho for the advantages of health and educational facilities and they are comfortably established in a place adjoining that of G. W. Miller.

Newt Williams, now living on Brackett's place, had two young lads choked to death last Sunday night in the stable. He valued them (before they died) at two thousand dollars.

J. A. Duncan is now conducting the butcher business on his "own hook." Two shops; both supplied with the choicest meats to be obtained.

Owing to the rain last Monday the W. O. T. U. concert was postponed until Friday night (to-morrow) Admission free; M. E. church all invited.

If the drunken crew that made "Rome howl" on the streets of this town last Sunday night carry their hilarity into the churches and disturb public worship again, the law will be applied vigorously.

Attention is called to the lumber advertisement in this issue of E. G. Brown, (yards at Fairland and Fairland, Ind., and Seneca, Mo.) A complete stock of lumber will be found at each of the points named.

H. T. Miller, an agent for the Keeley Institute, was here last week for the purpose of finding out what indications would be an indication at this establishment of an institute at this place. There was very little encouragement held out, we believe.

In this paper will be found the ad. of James Metcalf & Co., live stock commission merchants of East St. Louis. The firm is one of the most reliable and popular ones and is represented in this country by Sam Hall, of this city. Consult him before consigning your stock.

Probably the best lot of cattle which ever went out of this town were shipped Monday last to Kansas City by W. S. Edwards, who lives in this nation, south of Caney, Kansas. They were fed on Horse creek, and some of them were weighed 1,600 and should have brought four cents—$60 each.

Stockmen, a Word Please.

In the round-up to begin next week it was arranged at the Claremore meeting that below the Creek pastures each man will act as captain while the outfit is on his range.

The boundaries of the Hallett range were defined as follows: The Creek line on the south, the Verdigris on the east, the Osage line on the west, and Horse Pen creek on the north.

The CHIEFTAIN is going to overhaul and revise its brand columns in a few days and turn them into one herd. Should any change be desired, or should any brand upon which the time has run out be wished inserted another year, please advise this office promptly. If you intend inserting your brand this spring the present is a favorable time.

Suicide of a Sao and Fox.

Yesterday noon two blanket Indians of the Sao and Fox tribe came in on Frisco train from the east and a few moments later one of them, Melchior, committed suicide by stabbing himself in the throat with a pocket knife. He was seen to stoop down beside the Bon Ton bakery, the companion going on ahead) pull his blanket over his head and a moment later to fall over. People who were witnesses supposed he had fished and run to him, to find the blood gushing from his side, and in a few moments the man was dead. A coffin was quickly procured, the remains deposited in it and sent to Sapulpa on the regular train, the other Indian, his son-in-law, accompanying them. He had been up to Tama county, Iowa, their former home, and passed through this town about two weeks ago.

A Sad Death.

The wife of C. B. Essex, "Jack," died in this city Tuesday night about nine o'clock, of peritonitis. The case is one of those which appeals to the sympathies of all, coming as a result of premature delivery, with hardly a day's warning. The funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and the interment took place in the cemetery north of town. Mr. and Mrs. Essex came here among strangers but a few months ago, bride and groom, from Pittsburg, Kansas, the lady's home. In the hour of his bereavement the young husband will receive the sympathy of the community, but what empty compensation it is for the loss of the love of an affectionate wife, the world cannot know.
